

God is not a man

Uduak E.J

You've been hurt by the many lies
Even the truth you know still leaves you bound
And when the preacher gives you a word from the lord
You say, there goes another lie
See, the rains may not fall and the flowers bud
Do not be blind to see the God of miracles doing as he said
For God is not a man
He cannot lie
He will not lie
Wait for the appointed time
Says the preacherman
God will make things beautiful in his time
But Times have passed and seasons gone it's seems like God's word is failing
You have tarried for so long
Hoping you'll sing that joyful song
Rejoice again I say rejoice o barren woman
Sing like the one who has children
For God is not a man
He cannot lie
He will not lie

Lyrics provided by <https://agmlyrics.com/>