

One + One

Anthony Odion

Verse 1

When a man finds a wife he finds favor from the Lord
Though the search might be long when he finds her he would know /x2
The bone of my bones the flesh of flesh has just been /x2
I will rejoice and bless the lord for what he has done

Chorus

He finds favor from the Lord
Things are not the same again
One plus one has become one
There is no divide no divide
Ya ah ah ya ah ah
Ya ah ah ya ah ah
Ya ah ah ah ah

Verse 2

The first time I saw I was looking for your wings
Cause you look like an angel days was made for me
The first time I set my eyes on you I was looking for your wings
Cause you look like angel that was made for me
The bone of my bones the flesh of my flesh has just been found
I will rejoice and bless the Lord
For what he has done /x2
Ya ah ah ya ah ah
Ya ah ah ya ah ah
Ya ah ah ah ah

Husband love your wife like He loves the church

Wife submit to your head
There is no divide no divide no divide
He finds favor from the Lord
Things are not the same again
One plus one has become one
There is no divide no divide no divide /x2
No divide no divide
No divide no divide
No divide no divide
He finds favor from the Lord
Things are not the same again
One plus one has become one
There is no divide no divide no divide
