Hmm hmm hmm hmm

You know these trials Im passing through

I may not understand it.

Lord, this pain right in my heart

Really, I do not understand

Yet I put my trust in You

Cause I see me fighting through

You are the fourth man in the fire

Ready to see me break right through

Lead Vocal Talk
Ill do whatever it takes to get your attention oh Lord Tell Him your soul waits on Him. Let Him know that your hope, your expectations are all on Him.
Dear Lord, I may not understand the pain in my heart right now but I trust You and I will wait on You
Young men, strong people may faint but you my friend, wait on the Lord.
Anticipate His grace and experience His divine strength. You will rise up on the soaring wings and fly like the eagles. You shall run your race without growing weary. Lead your life, walk through life without giving up. Dont give up! Dont give up!! Dont give up!!!
Wait on Him as I know its working out for your good. Halleluyah
