

Kosenibire remix

Tobiloba

Love so Beautiful, love so pure, love so sweet and love so wonderful

I'll write you a song with unspeakable lyrics

I'll give you a melody with unsingable notes

You step into my place and my pain you took away

Silence is impossible, I must let the whole world know.

Part B: Cos you showed me how to love blew my mind with love

You found me as a slave transformed me to a son

You made my stripes your own, now to you I belong

I love you, I love you

Chorus: Komasenibire o

Laiye lorun

I love you

Cos you more than a father

More than a lover

No matter the weather

I go love you till I die

Ti Ti lai

No be lie

Nu e nimeni ca tine

In cer ?i pe pam?nt

Te iubesc .

Esti mai mult decat un tata

Chiar si iubirea

Vremea nu conteaza.

Te iubesc pe vecie

Eternitate

Nu te mint.

Such love beautiful love

Nu te mint.

How I love you (repetitive)

Rap.

No Snitching

But the world must know you are different

From the way you love with my countless flaws, I dare not say Im decent.

Always cognizant, never revenant.

Countless age but still you are relevant

Some may say my style is exuberant

When I start to describe your brilliance.

But tell me..

Who on the world loves deeper

And is still an awesome healer

Trump or Not, North or South, you are the all time leader.

My Shame, My flaws you brushed away

And then you took the pain, you changed the game.
See now my view cannot remain the same
Because thats what you do, you spark the flames.
