VERSE 01

Youve searched my heart and you know me
You know when I fall and you know when I rise yeah
Papa you dey read my thoughts from afar
You know when Im true and you know when I lie
Where can i go from your eyes
Where can I go, Where can i flee from your sight
If I go up to the heavens or down to the depths
You go still dey by my side
You never leave me to dry, Though im imperfect
But by the blood of your Son you redeem me
And tell me Im worth it, Then Im reminded

HOOK (REPEAT)

VERSE 02

If I rise on the wings of the dawn
N fly to the far side of the 7 seas
Right there, I see you, reaching for me
Guiding, providing, riding, fighting
Everytime Im in a tight place
I see your mighty power coming just to free me
And when depression put me in a dark place
I see your bright light coming just to kill it
Even in the middle of my fumbling
Papa you dey save me from the suffering
Even in midst of my shortcomings
Papa you dey turn up to save me everyday
Now u Got me wondering
Where can i go from your eyes
Where can I go, Where can i flee from your sight
If I go up to the heavens or down to the depths
You go still dey by my side
You never leave me to dry, Though im imperfect

But by the blood of your Son you redeem me
And tell me Im worth it, Then Im reminded
HOOK AND VAMP (REPEAT)

BRIDGE

When Im out, And Im lost, In the dark
You always close, ever near, Never far
You give me love, give me joy, Give me fire
Because you never leave me no
(repeat bridge)
