

Jesus to the World

Loyiso Bala

Jesus to the World (Loyiso Bala)
We are your destiny
Your future is in me
With open eyes I've seen
Your grace, Your mercy
For You are Christ in me
The hope of all glory
And all the world will see
This truth that sets us free
Because our hope remains
As we receive we freely give away
As we are filled we are sent out again
Taking Jesus to the World
Jesus to the world
Jesus to the street
Jesus in my hands
Meeting others needs
Jesus to the world
Jesus breaking chains
Because our hope remains
Im taking Jesus to the world
We are your hands and feet
You are the word we speak
And all I am will be available to be
Because our hope remains
As we receive we freely give away
As we are filled we are sent out again
Taking Jesus to the world
Jesus to the world
Jesus to the street
Jesus in my hands
Meeting others needs
Jesus to the world
Jesus breaking chains
Because our hope remains
Im taking Jesus to the world
To the world
Bridge
I am Yours and You are mine
Your love has become alive
Take me when You need to be
To break the chains, set captives free
I am Yours and You are mine

Your love has become alive
Take me when You need to be
To break the chains, set captives free
As we receive we freely give away
As we are filled we are sent out again
Jesus to the world
Jesus to the street
Jesus in my hands
Meeting others needs
Jesus to the world
Jesus breaking chains
Because Youll come again
Because You never change
