

Jesus For the black man too

Tobiloba

You stole from me in His name took my fathers in chains tore their hearts out in pain You Misrepresented my King Yes, you told me he could save
From the painful pangs of Sin But your action said He was okay with me becoming your slave this Jesus that you paint is not the Jesus, that i see when i look through the pages of scripture
i see a different Jesus
This was not his agenda
This was not his agenda
This was not His agenda
Hes a Jesus for the black man too.
You brainwashed me cos i let you you came into my community, took advantage of my disloyalty you stole away my liberty No no no, i am not trying to put the blame on you but we both must come to face the truth that the dark side of History that you wrote as left a program in my head that yours is superior mine is inferior yours is blessed and mine is cursed This program that you wrote is the biggest lie i have ever known
When i look through the pages of scripture
i see a different Jesus.
This was not his agenda
This was not his agenda
This was not His agenda
Hes a jesus for the black man too.
I forgive you
i forgive you
i forgive you
But i will turn my pain into passion
I forgive you
i forgive you
i forgive you
But its time for me to rise up

I forgive you
i forgive you
i forgive you
But the truth is now my weapon
I forgive you
i forgive you
i forgive you
Hes a Jesus for the black man too.

Lyrics provided by <https://agmlyrics.com/>