

This Generation

Khaya Mthethwa

Im nothing, without you see Im nothing
Im broken inside apart from your love
In knowing youll never leave when Im falling thats why i pour out my heart cause youve become my light
This generation
this generation youve chosen
This generation
living in words you have spoken
Im nothing, without you see Im nothing
Im broken inside apart from your love
In knowing youll never leave when Im falling
thats why i pour out my heart
cause youve become my light
This generation
this generation youve chosen
This generation
living in words you have spoken
Im trusting
Believing I know Im forgiven Shaping the words of your grace there is a race to see you face to face Im running Running towards your great No turning back no holding back Open my ears to hear you say I smile even when my heart really cries Hiding away from the light
You shine so bright Inside my eye
