

Brighter Day

Joel Flute

Verse 1

Awaking

Oh rest my soul

In you alone

I lay down all my guilt

Families, Nations, Kingdoms

Rise to fight each other

Dreams are shattered

Homes are scattered

And hunger everywhere

Chorus

There shall be a brighter day

Brighter

There shall be a brighter day

Brighter day /2ce

There shall be a brighter day

Verse 2

And only you alone

Can mend the broken heart

In him alone you will find rest for your soul

O broken hearted

He's calling you

Rise to give him your heart

Just run to him

In his open arms

Is where you belong

And he will keep you through

Variation

Oooo brighter day

Aaaa brighter day

Oooo brighter day

Brighter day
