

The King is coming

Nathaniel Bassey

The king is coming
in glory and in majesty
every eye will see the king

The King is coming
in glory and in majesty
every eye will see the king

The tomb is empty
He died for me and rose again
every eye will see the King

The king is coming
in glory and in majesty
every eye will see the king

Will you be ready
in glory and in majesty
every eye will see the king

Exhortation

The king is coming
in glory and in majesty
every eye will see the king

The grave is empty
in glory and in majesty
every eye will see the king

The tomb is empty
He died for me and rose again

The king is coming
in glory and in majesty

Will you be ready
in glory and in majesty

The king is coming
in glory and in majesty

The king is coming

in glory and in majesty
