This is our prayer:

Njengendluzela yomel'amanzi (As the deer longs for water)
Ka njalo no umpefumulo wami' ufuna Wena (So my soul longs for you, oh God)
Ungxanele wena nkosi (I thirst for you, my God)
As the deer longs and pants for the streams of water
So my soul longs for you, oh God
I thirst for God; for the Living God
Just to be in your presence
I am seeking you alone – let your presence come
And saturate me and drench me
Every part of me: Make me new
Let Your Spirit come, and move within me
Fill me once again, 'cause I need You
For you are the God who ... me
In your presence you reveal Your light, and your Faithfulness
You lead me, and you have called me back
I'm thirsting for you, I'm thirsting for You
I'm thirsty only for you Lord, I'm thirsting for You
Keeper of my Soul, I am thirsting for you
... of my Heart, I'm thirsting for You
Healer of my Soul, I'm thirsting for you
