

Grace

Clifford Enobun

Thank You for Your grace
Marvelous grace over me
I have seen all of Your mercies and love in my life Even when I didnt deserve any oh Oh Lord You have never failed To pour Your love over me Grace Gods riches at Christs expense the whole essence of our christian life the more blessings we get that we dont deserve check it If we start to count on whos account do we get from irrespective of where we from He makes rain fall on the just and unjust
His love is so robust, cant get enough For Him I bust Rhymes of thanksgiving so many men are living lives based on lies Some switch to crime they say the rich dont cry but 24/7 they protect themselves scared to die its been a while I asked why The rich die young and the bad survive
Cant explain the world, call it the mystery of life Emotions run deep, you can feel it inside Drowning in the ocean of love, swept by the tide My Lord Jesus got me, thought He forgot me cause sometimes when I fall its difficult to stand tall blow tantrums that Im Gods son its a sad thing Denying Him is a mad thing how did Peter do that thing But thats when grace calls to cover up your flaws Mercy says no, by the power of the blood Drinking, getting high in the spoken word of the Lord
My old selfs been put to the sword Old things have passed away cant pass a day, without getting a good dose of Gods grace So real, cant be faked irrespective of your level of faith Im talking Christian kinda faith So many Christians can relate and if you cant relate Dont get it twisted no debate no debate
Where would I be without Your grace Oh wonderful grace
Thank You for Your warm embrace Amazing grace, so sweet
