

Better Man

Angeloh

Intro

Yeah yeah

Its Angeloh

Verse 1

If I could go back in time

I would be a better son to my mama

Ama go the extra mile just to make her smile

Ana give her no drama

I go do only wetin go dey make am happy

Cause my lifestyle no go dey lame

And when she send me make I go buy Maggi I no go use the money to dey go play game for game house

Instead ama be the man of the house

Be the best son of the year

And since Pahleh chose to be a rolling stone

Ama roll it right back

And wipe away every single tear from her eyes

Thats right

Ama be a source of joy in her life

Till I die oh

But sadly shes dead already

Chorus:

If I could go back in time

Ama change my ways.

I go make sure say I no make the same mistakes noo

Ama be a better son to my mama be a better friend to my brother be a better man to my lover

Be a better man errday

Verse 2:

Hol up! Where my phone?

I need to call up on a dear blood

Its been a while really and I know I treat you ill

Putting you on top a scale bro

And I know that,

I only call you when I need your help blood

I hang with you in the good times but I never stick around when the going gets rough

I really hope you get to hear this

I really hope you get to forgive me for my carelessness

I hope to prove to you my brother

That ama ride or die for you to the end I swear

But until then

I no go only call you when I need your help blood

See ama go the extra mile to show you that I got your back and I am loyal to the end blood

Chorus

Verse 3:

If I could go back in time
I would be a better man to my lover
Ama go the extra mile just to make her smile
In spite of her drama
I go do everything just to make her happy
I swear I no go play games
I no go let fear, jealousy, anybody or a sex drive
Come between me and my babe
Ama clear your doubt, baby ama make you my spouse
Love you like Christ love the church
Ama put a ring on your finger, take goats to your people at the villa
As I take you right back to the church
To say I do
I no go ever shame to let the world know that I got you
Baby
Chorus
